

Memphis' Second Globe Sets Opening Wednesday

The second Globe Shopping City in Memphis will open Wednesday at 1200 East Shelby Drive and Highway 51 South in Whitehaven.

The 80,000-square-foot store will be opened officially at a 9 a.m. ribbon-cutting ceremony. City Councilman Ed McBrayer and Eugene A. Roper, an assistant to Mayor Henry Loeb, and Globe executives will officiate.

William LaRoche is manager of the new store, Charles Stockton is hardline manager and James Mace is softline manager.

M. B. Rudnick, president of Globe Stores, a Houston, Texas, firm, said, "For the convenience of our prescription customers, in our new store, we provide special telephone lines direct to our pharmacy, so customers and doctors can call direct."

Like the first store at Mendenhall and Poplar, Mr. Rudnick said, the new Globe will feature a "Sun Room" where meals and snacks are served. The store has 78 departments.

An English Tudor Mansard roof sets off the Southern antique brick face of the single-level building. The adjacent parking lot accommodates about 1,000 cars.

The new store occupies the west end of the new South Brook Shopping Mall. Montesi's Supermarket South at 1232 East Shelby Drive occupies the east end.

Gerald J. Siegel has been appointed new Memphis district manager for Globe Shopping City stores.

ALODEX Proceeds On Annex Building

ALODEX Corp. has begun construction on a $250,000 addition to its four-story Southaven, Miss., headquarters building.

The new steel and concrete structure will be one story high and will be connected by a breezeway to the present building. Completion is expected by July.

The corporation decided to build the addition because of a
